

Office and Laboratory Designer Notes

A Special Edition for Office and Laboratory Designers

Volume 7 Issue 5

December 1997

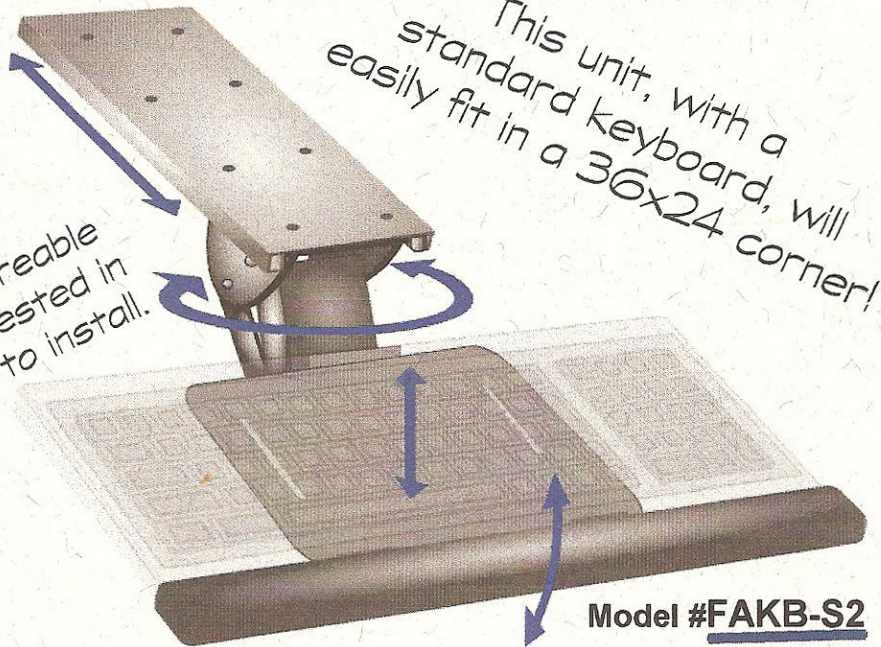

Now In Stock:

New Keyboard Support from DTK only $69.00

The new #FAKB-S2, articulating keyboard support is now available, for immediate shipment from Dennis T. Kondo, at the low, discount, net, unit cost of only $69.00 each (even lower in quantities over 100). It is an alternative version of our popular #FAKB-S1 (see other side for comparison), with all the standard features normally specified. It is currently being shown in our Santa Ana Showroom. This is a complete unit and includes the tray and padded palm rest. The following is a list of features:

- 1) Fully articulating, height and tilt adjustable, with one simple knob.
- 2) Retractable on a short 17" (43cm) track.
- 3) Adjustable keyboard clamp/tray.
- 4) 360° arm swivel/rotation.
- 5) Padded palm rest.
- 6) Mounting template and screws.
- 7) BIFMA conformance.
- 8) 5 Year factory warranty.

This unit, with a standard keyboard, will easily fit in a 36x24 corner!

This is a solid unit, with all the desirable articulating features, typically requested in bids etc., simple to use and easy to install.

Model #FAKB-S2

*Net unit cost, computer keyboard and sales tax not included, F.O.B. DTK, Santa Ana, CA. Offer valid through March 31, 1998.
